Lesson Summaries

Joshua 24: 14-25

Having lead the People of God into the Promised Land, and having guided them through all the struggles that followed their conquest and settlement for that region, Joshua now challenges them to decide which God or gods they will serve. He declares that he and his family will serve no one other than the God who has rescued and preserved them through all their trials.

Galatians 6: 11-18

St. Paul concludes what has been a very difficult letter to the Christians in Galatia. Writing himself, he emphasizes the importance of not placing our hope on the things we do, the works of the Law, but on the saving work of Jesus Christ

St. Matthew 6: 24-34

Jesus speaks of the importance of establishing the kingdom of God as the first priority in our lives and then trusting that God will work with us to provide all other necessities.

The Anglican Parishes of Sackville and Dorchester

In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty;
in all things, charity
Rupertus Meldenius (1582-1651)

O everlasting Light, far surpassing all created things, send down the beams of Your brightness from above, and purify, gladden, and illuminate in me all the inward corners of my heart.
